Story on Page Two

BRUTALLY BEATEN. Frustrated in an attempt to attack Lillian Sandiford (inset) a massive negro mercilessly beat her with a club in woods near Philadelphia. He escaped. Her father (standing) and her fiancé, Alvin Stevens, are shown examining scene of attack. (Photo Graphic.)

RUMORED ENGAGED! Mary Landon Baker (above), of Chicago, will be led to the altar by Lord Carmarthen, son of the Duke of Leeds, according to word from London. It will be recalled that Miss Baker broke her engagement with Allister McCormick.
